Note for the Reader.

The present is the seventh volume of the Registers of the Diocese of St. Asaph which has been completed by the Shropshire Parish Register Society. It contains the seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth volumes of the voluminous Registers of Oswestry. This Register is now completed to the year 1812, and as printed is more complete than the original Register, thanks to the kindness of Archdeacon Thomas in supplying a number of missing entries from the Bishop's Transcripts preserved at St. Asaph.

In this, as in previous volumes, the entries are printed in abstract form, all mere verbiage being omitted, although every fact is recorded, and all items, other than the usual entries of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, being printed in full. For the abbreviations adopted, reference must be made to the "Notes to the Reader" at the beginning of the earlier volumes.

For the transcript of the present Volume our thanks are due to Miss Rachel Leighton, who has also collated the transcript with the original Registers, and has passed the proofs through the press. To her is due in large measure the bringing out of the entire Oswestry Register to 1812.

In this Volume there is a noticeable absence of "ap" names, so frequent in the first and second Volumes, and the names will be found indexed under the surnames throughout, save in the case of a few Welsh names, where they are indexed under the first Christian name. The "ap" names are not indexed in the same way in the several Volumes; and before searching them, the Notes to the Reader and the Introductions to each Volume should be consulted.

Thanks are due to the late and present Vicars of Oswestry or leave to print the Register, and for facilities afforded in transcription and collation, and to Archdeacon Thomas for much help afforded throughout the issue of the entire Register.

VOLUME IV.

Oswestry Registers.

The fourth and concluding Volume of the Registers of Oswestry, issued by the Shropshire Parish Register Society, comprises Volumes VII, VIII, IX, X, XI and XII as given in the Parish Register Abstract of 1831, which are thus described:—

Nos. VII, VIII. Bur. 1751—1812.

Nos. IX—XII. Marr. 1755—1812, also Bap. Bur. (for the House of Industry) 1783—1789.

Volume VII, which is marked Vol. 5 on the Cover, contains entries of Burials from 1750 to 1781. It is a book of parchment leaves, bound in boards, with leather back and corners, size 14 inches by 9½ inches, and is in excellent condition. There are no entries of any special interest, except the burial on 8 February 1773 of a centenarian: "Old Jane Reese late of Chirk aged 103." There is also a long record of a case arising in 1671 out of Mr. Owen Morgan's Will. The premises charged with his charity and devised to the Haberdashers Company having been burnt in the Great Fire of London in 1666, the payment had fallen into arrears, and the Parson and Churchwardens sued the Company. Judgment was given in favour of the plaintiffs, and the defendants were ordered to pay in addition to the annuity of £20 five pounds a year until the arrears of £110 should be cleared. (See pp. 109-112.)

Volume VIII, which is described as Vol. XII, contains entries of Burials from 1782 to 1812. It is a book of parchment leaves, bound in leather, size 13½ inches by 8½ inches, and is in excellent condition. From July 1803 the ages of the deceased persons are usually given. There is a curious entry on 21 February 1805 of the burial of a midwife who in thirty years "received into the world 1673 children in this town and neighbourhood." At the end of the Volume is a list of "Paupers Burials since October 1st, 1783," the names presumably of those persons for whom the Government duty of three-pence per burial was not paid. It extends until October 1789. There are pencil notes on the last page of the Burials—

Rev. Mr. Trevor, Vicar, buried 5th March 1784, stated to have been Vicar near 50 years.

Rev. Turner Edwards, Vicar, buried 21st Jan. 1803.

Rev. Danl. Griffiths, Vicar, buried 21 Jan. 1808.

Rev. John William Bourke, Vicar, buried Aug. 1823.

Mrs. Sarah Venables buried June 1807 (in the chancel).

Rev. Joseph Venables buried Aug. 1810 (84).

Volume IX. contains Marriages from 1755 to 1761. It is a book of parchment leaves, in boards and paper, size 14½ inches by 10 inches, and is in good condition, with the exception of a few leaves at the beginning, which are missing. Fortunately, through the kindness of Archdeacon Thomas, these missing entries, 39 in number, which extend from 16 May 1754 to 6 October 1755, have been supplied from the Bishop's Transcripts preserved at St. Asaph, as also have 19 entries at the end of the Volume from 21 April to 7 November 1760.

Volume X. contains Marriages from 1761 to 1778, and is a book of parchment leaves in boards and paper, size 14½ inches by 10 inches. The condition is good, except that one or more leaves at the beginning are missing. These entries, which extend from 18 February to 8 December 1761, twenty-four in number, have also been supplied from the Bishop's Transcripts by Archdeacon Thomas.

Volume XI. contains Marriages from 1778 to 1800. It is a book of parchment leaves in good condition, bound in leather boards with two brass clasps. Its size is 14½ inches by 10 inches.

Volume XII. contains Marriages from 1800 to 1812. It is a book of parchment leaves, in boards and paper, size 14½ inches by 10 inches, and is in good condition.

With the addition of the three groups of missing marriage entries, supplied from the Transcripts, the printed Register of Oswestry is now complete and perfect.

Among the few details of the entries in Vols. VII and VIII we have noted under 1760, the burial of "a stranger from Llansilin who came to y<sup>e</sup> faire and died at Oerly Hall, by going whom."

1769, the curious name of "Aston Chears a boy nursing at Charles Felton's."

1792, Richard Morris, a conjuror, aged 85, buried.

1795, "A travelling tinker a lunatick," buried.

1805, "Elizabeth Basnett, midwife, who during her practice for 30 years received into the world 1,673 children in this town and neighbourhood, aged 68."

1809, "Joseph Ferzura, servant to Lord Dungannon 75."

An outbreak of small pox appears to have broken out in the town in 1792, as no fewer than thirteen deaths were due to that cause.

The last year of this Volume, 1812, records instances, in striking contrast to the present Entente Cordiale, of the presence of French Prisoners of War on parole in the town, e.g.

Feb. 21.	Claude Goujon of Oswestry and Elizabeth Hawkes of Oakhampton, lic. . . . .	mar.
April 9.	Mons Tagost a French Prisoner of War on Parole at Oswestry about 48 . . . . .	bur.
„ 15.	J [blank] Dellehe d. of a French Prisoner 2 . . . . .	bur.
June 1.	Frederick [blank] a French Prisoner 63 . . . . .	bur
July 3.	[blank] a French Prisoner . . . . .	bur.

It only remains to add that the transcript of the Registers comprised in the present Volume was made at the cost of Miss Rachel Leighton, who has herself collated the transcript with the original Registers and has seen the proofs through the press. To her kindness the members of the Society are greatly indebted.

A word of thanks is also due to Mr. T. M. Carpendale for compiling the Indexes to the four Volumes, a work of considerable difficulty in the earlier volumes, owing to the long Welsh names, and the difficulties connected with their proper arrangement. To understand the Indexes, the searcher must consult the Notes to the Reader and the Introductions to the several Volumes.

For permission to print these Registers we are indebted to the Rev. M. B. Lutener, Vicar of Oswestry.

Lord Cheif Justice Vaughan, Mr. Justice Raynsford, Mr. Baron Littleton, present.

At the Court of Judicature, erected, reviv'd & continu'd by several Acts of Parliament for detirmination of differences touching houses Burned or demolished by reason of the Late Fire wch. happened in London, held in Cliffords Inne Hall, London, on Friday the nineteenth day of January in the three and twentieth year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord King Charles the 2nd, Anno Dni. 1671.

The Master & four Wardens of the Fraternity of the Art or Mystery of Haberdashers in the City of London, Petitioners against the Parson and Churchwardens of the Parish Church of Oswestry in ye County of Salop.

Whereas The above written Master and four wardens of the Fraternity of ye sd. art or mystery of Haberdashers have exhibited their petition into this Judicature, thereby setting forth, in effect, That Mr. Owen Morgan being seized of divers Messuages & Tenemts. in Catherine Wheel Alley in Fleet Street & at East Cheap Corner in London, did by his will, dated ye first day of March, 1604, Devise ye prmes. (in case of the death of one William Jeffreys) to the Company of Haberdashers for ever, and did thereby ordain that out of ye rents of ye prmes. (if the same should happen to fall to the Company), the Master & Wardens thereof should pay yearly for ever to the above sd. Parson & Churchwardens of the sd. parish of Oswestry in the said county of Salop for the relief of the Poor of that Parish, the sum of twenty pounds by Quarterly payments.

That the Inheritance of the prmes. soon after coming to ye said Company the yearly rent of £20 hath ever since to the time of the late dreadfull fire, been duely paid to the said parson & churchwardens for the use afore sd. And the Petitioners about the year 1651 demised the whole prmes. to one John Taylor for 99 years at the yearly rent of twenty-one pounds. Doctor Hamy his, Assignee for the whole term and interest, did refuse to build at ye reserv'd rent, and in regard that most of the ground of the House at East Cheap Corner was taken away he did before this Judicature surrender up the sd. Lease to ye Petitioners upon payment to him of Fifty pounds. That the petitioners never received any rent for any part of ye prmes. since the sd. fire and therefore have not, nor could pay ye sd. annuity but shall pay the same for the future as soon as they receive any rents, wherewith the said parson and Churchwardens are not satisfied. But threaten to sue the petitioners for the Arrears, and in regard all persons interested are to bear a share in the Loss.

The Petitioners humbly pray'd a warrant to warn ye Parson & Churchwardens of the aforesd. town of Oswestry and to set down such order & decree as this Court should seem meet.

Where upon a warrant was granted & Issued from this Judicature accordingly. And the said parson and churchwardens of ye sd. parish having been thereupon warned. Mr. Bowes appeared here in Court this day as Council on their behalf, Mr. Sturges being of Council with the said petitioners, and upon reading the said petition & opening the matters therein specified to the Court. The Petitioners sd. Council prayed the Court to discharge the arrears of the aforesd. Annuity of £20 per Annum, incurred since the time of the said Fire and to abate some part of the same for the future for such number of years as this Court shall think reasonable, whereupon the Council of ye sd. parish much opposed the abatement of any part of the sd. arrears or of the said Annuity for the future. Alledging that the said Company in this particular are Gainers by the sd. fire by reason that in the year of our Lord 1651 made a Lease of the prmes. for ninety-nine years out of which the said Annuity is Issuing for which they received £686 Fine and that since the said fire 50 pounds paid by them they have the said Lease surrendered, and that they have since Let the said ground in and near Fleet Street for 60 years being a Lesser term than the remainder of the term to come in the said first lease, and have reserved £25 per an. Rent for the same upon the new Lease thereof made, whereby their Estate is become better by Occassion of the sd. fire both in the advance of the rent and the shornness of the term out against them, and therefore ye said Council much pressed that the aforesd. poore of the said town of Oswestry might not be losers by the said Fire, the said Company being gainers thereby. But the sd. Company's Council alledged that the Company's gain ariseth by the accident of a good Bargain which they have purchased and that the sd. poore ought not to reap the benefit of it but be contributory towards the Building according to their Interest, whereupon the Court having heard the several allegations of the sd. Councill or both sides, fully debated and well considered the same.

Declared That in this particular Case in regard the sd. Company are no losers by ye sd. Fire that it is Just and reasonable that the sd. poor ought not to loose anything thereby. But that the sd. annuity be paid all along without any ceasing or abatement. But Mr. Blaney, the clerk of the said Company being present in Court, informed the Court that the said Company by reason of their Extraordinary Charges since the sd. Fire cannot conveniently at the present pay so great a sum of money as the sd. arrears amount unto, being one hundred and ten pounds, and therefore desired the Court to take the same into further consideration. Thereupon the Court propounded, That the said Company in satisfaction of the said Arrears of the said annuity incurred since the time of the Fire for and during the Term of two and twenty years, accounted from Christmas now next coming shall pay unto the parson and churchwardens of the said parish for the time being to the use of the poore there, the yearly sum of five pounds over and besides the said annuity of twenty pounds, and that the pmes. be charged with payment of the same. [One leaf blank.] And notwithstanding any matter alledged to the contrary the Court pronounced the sd. matters decreed, accordingly therfore for a final detirmination of all differences between the petitioners and the sd. parson and churchwardens of the aforesd. parish touching the premisses.
